Prayer for Silent Meditation

We encourage you to use the moments preceding the commencement of holy worship in quiet meditation and preparation. Toward that end we offer the prayer below as food for thought.

O God, the God of spirits and the God of all flesh, beyond compare, who stands in need of nothing, who has given the sun to have rule over the day, and the moon and the stars to have rule over the night, may you now also look down upon us with gracious eyes, and receive our morning thanksgivings, and have mercy upon us, for we have not spread out our hands to a strange god, but to you, the eternal God, without end, who has given us our being through Christ, and given us our well being through him. Vouchsafe unto us also eternal life through him; with whom glory, and honor, and worship be to you and the Holy Spirit forever. Amen. Apostolic Constitutions, circa 4th C

Prayer of Confession Kneel (as able)

O You before whose eyes all human hearts lie bare and open, forbid that we should seek to hide from You anything we have done or thought. What is hidden from the knowledge of others let us now confess to You. What no shame kept us from committing let now no false shame keep us from confessing. You whose tender mercies are over all your works, humbly and sorrowfully we ask your forgiveness for our sins. For every defiling thought to which our minds give harbor, forgive; for every word spoken in haste and passion, forgive; for every failure of self control, forgive; for every stumbling block we have set in another's way, forgive; for every opportunity lost, forgive; for every blessing thanklessly received, forgive. All of this and more we ask in Jesus' name and by his shed blood. Grant that your Spirit may more and more rule in our hearts, giving us victory over these and all other sinful ways. Amen. Adapted from A Diary of Private Prayer, John Baille, 1886-1960, Professor, University of Edinburgh

And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses. Colossians 2:13

Prayer for the Sermon

O God, whose name is holy of itself, we pray that it may be hallowed also by us. To this end help us, O blessed Father in heaven, that your word may be taught in truth and purity, and that we, as your children, may lead holy lives in accordance with it. Through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen. Martin Luther, 1483-1546

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Our God and Father, we lift up our hearts to you. Give us your Holy Spirit. Grant us the grace to approach this table with humble repentance and ardent desire in Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us to receive this holy sacrament with firm faith in your word, that in receiving these visible signs from your hand we may receive by faith the body and blood of Jesus Christ, who died for us as the nourishment of eternal life. May we take from it the peace and spiritual joy proper to your children with ardent love for you, our God, and a firm resolve henceforth to consecrate our lives to your service, until we see your face and our souls are received by Jesus Christ our Savior, who has redeemed them by his death. Amen. Pierre du Moulin, 1568-1658
