Prayer for Silent Meditation

We encourage you to use the moments preceding the commencement of holy worship in quiet meditation and preparation. Toward that end we offer the prayer below as food for thought.

Lord God Almighty, in whose name the founders of this country won liberty for themselves and for us, and lit the torch of freedom for nations then unborn: Grant that we and all the people of this land may have the grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen. Book of Common Prayer, 1979

* Apostolic Salutation  Congregation Standing*

Minister: The Lord be with your spirit.

People: And grace be with you.

* Call to Worship Psalm 80, #813-4

* The Law of God Exodus 20:1-17

Prayer of Confession Kneel (as able)

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done – and there is no health in us. But you, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare those who confess their faults; restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. Grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life to the glory of your holy Name. Amen.

Our Prayers and Praise, from The Book of Common Prayer, 1957

I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. 1 John 2:12

Prayer for the Sermon

Enlighten, O Lord God, the movements of our meditations to hear and understand the sweet listenings to your life giving and divine commands preached in your Word. Grant us through your grace and mercy to gather from them the assurance of love, hope, and salvation suitable to soul and body and we will sing to you everlasting glory without ceasing, O Lord of all! Amen.
