Come

Revelation 22:16-21

- I. Come: Overflowing Life is Liberally Offered to Those Who Hear, Thirst, and Desire Life as Offered By the Authentic One. v16-17

- II. Come: Overwhelming Death is Solemnly Threatened to Those Who Add or Subtract From the Words of Him Who is Soon to Come. v18-21

The vision for the New Geneva Orthodox Presbyterian Church is to preach, teach, and practice the Reformed faith in Southeast Idaho through a God-centered worship service, a variety of teaching ministries, and practical service to the community.

We are covenantal
Holding to the Old and New Covenants or Testaments

We are confessional
Holding to the historic Westminster Confessional Standards

We are community oriented
Caring for our brothers and Sisters

We are cross-cultural
Believing that the Church is to be Called from every nation and race

We are Presbyterian
Believing that our church is only a small part of the Universal Church and that church government should fall upon the Presbytery or elders

This is what the LORD says
Stand at the crossroads and look ask for the ancient paths
ask where the good way is and walk in it and you will find rest for your souls

Prayer for Silent Meditation

We encourage you to use the moments preceding the commencement of holy worship in quiet meditation and preparation. Toward that end we offer the prayer below as food for thought.

Grant, O Lord, that as the years change, we may find rest in your eternal changelessness. May we meet this new year bravely, sure in the faith that, while men come and go, and life changes around us, you are always the same, guiding us with your wisdom, and protecting us with your love. Through our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

William Temple, 1881-1944, Archbishop of Canterbury

Prayer of Confession Kneel (as able)

Almighty God, who is rich in mercy to all those who call upon you: Hear us as we come to you humbly confessing our sins and transgressions, and imploring your mercy and forgiveness. We have broken your holy laws by our deeds and words, and by the sinful affections of our hearts. We confess before you our disobedience and ingratitude, our pride and willfulness, and all our failures and shortcomings towards you and our fellow men. Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; and of your great goodness grant that we may hereafter serve and please you in newness of life. Through the merit and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Louis F. Benson, 1855-1930, Presbyterian minister and hymnodist

* Assurance of Pardon

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace. Ephesians 1:7

Prayer for the Sermon

O God, whose name is holy of itself, we pray that it may be hallowed also by us. To this end help us, O blessed Father in heaven, that your word may be taught in truth and purity, and that we, as your children, may lead holy lives in accordance with it. Through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen. Martin Luther, 1483-1546

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Almighty God and merciful Father, we ask you that in this communion meal, in which we bring to mind the glorious remembrance of the bitter death of your Son Jesus Christ, that by your Holy Spirit you will work in our hearts. May we increasingly surrender ourselves to your Son Jesus Christ in true confidence so that, through the power of your Holy Spirit, our burdened and defeated hearts will be fed and refreshed by his body and blood – indeed by him, the matchless bread of heaven! May we remain no longer in our sins but rather let him live in us as we live in him. May we truly share in the new and eternal covenant of your grace. Let us not doubt that you will forever be our gracious Father who no longer takes account of our sins and who cares for our needs in body and soul as your beloved children and heirs. Hear us, O God and merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray along with your whole Church. Amen.
