Prayer for Silent Meditation

We encourage you to use the moments preceding the commencement of holy worship in quiet meditation and preparation. Toward that end we offer the prayer below as food for thought.

O God, who has folded back the mantle of the night, so clothe us in the golden glory of the day, chase from our hearts all gloomy thoughts, and make us glad with the brightness of hope, that we may effectively aspire to thus far un-won virtues. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Ancient Collect, circa 7th C.

Fourth Sunday in Advent

Luke 1:26-38

Almighty God, you have given your only begotten Son to take our nature upon him and to be born of a pure virgin: Grant that we, who have been born again and made your children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by your Holy Spirit; through our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom with you and the same Spirit be honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Kneel (as able)

Hear our prayer, O Lord, and listen to our groaning, for we acknowledge our iniquities and lay open our sins before you. Against you, O God, have we sinned. To you we make our confession and implore forgiveness. Turn your face again, O Lord, upon your servants whom you have redeemed with your own blood. Spare us, we pray, and assure pardon to our sins and be pleased to extend to us your loving kindness and your mercy. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

O Lord, the blind dullness of our corrupt nature will not suffer us sufficiently to weigh these your most ample benefits. Yet at the commandment of Jesus Christ our Lord we present ourselves to this, his table, to declare and witness before the world that by him alone we are possessed in our spiritual kingdom to eat and drink at his table, and with whom we have our conversation presently in heaven and by whom our bodies shall be raised up again from the dust and shall be placed with him in that endless joy which you have prepared for your elect before the foundation of the world was laid. In the name of him by whom we commune with you and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
