22 March 2026

 Congregation Standing*

Prayer for Silent Meditation

We encourage you to use the moments preceding the commencement of holy worship in quiet meditation and preparation. Toward that end we offer the prayer below as food for thought.

Mercifully receive, O Lord, the prayers of your people, that all adversities and errors may be destroyed; and that your people may serve you in quiet freedom, and may you be pleased to give your peace in our times. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Leonine Sacramentary, mid 5th C.

* Fifth Sunday in Lent Jeremiah 31:31-34

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to have what you command and desire what you promise: that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and for ever. Amen.

To you we make our confession and implore forgiveness. O Lord, turn your face again upon your servants whom you have redeemed with your own blood. Spare us, we pray you, and vouchsafe pardon to our sins and be pleased to extend to us your loving kindness and mercy. Amen. Mozarabic Liturgy, circa 6th C.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

We thank you, our Father, for that life which you've made known to us by Jesus, your Son, by whom you made all things, and sustain the world. You sent Him to become man for our salvation, ordaining Him to suffer and die. You raised Him up, glorified Him, and have set Him at your right hand. In Him you have promised us the resurrection of the dead. O Lord Almighty, gather your Church from the ends of the earth into your kingdom as grain was once scattered and now has become one loaf. We thank you for the precious blood of Jesus Christ, shed for us, "to proclaim his death." For through Him, glory is to be given to you forever. Amen.
